

Water spotting (Water marking)

Description

The spotty appearance of the paint film, caused by drops of water on the surface and that remains after the water has evaporated.

Cause

- Exposure of the paint film to rain or water before it has fully cured;

Prevention

- Protect the painted surfaces from water until fully cured;

Rectification

- Compound and polish;

- In severe cases sand the affected area and refinish;